

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.
Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance price of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat.
Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year, always in advance.

Important to News Dealers.
We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.
Persons can procure any number of papers at this office at the usual rate of three dollars per hundred; postage added, if by mail.

CITY NEWS.

Rally! McClellan Men! Rally!
There will be a meeting of the Democracy on Wednesday night, at Schindler's Exchange, on Jefferson street, between Hancock and Chay. There will also be one held at Felix's Tavern, in Bucktown, on Thursday night, and on Saturday night there will be a rousing McClellan gathering at the courthouse. Distinguished speakers will be present on each of the above occasions and address the citizens.
Let every true friend of "Little Mac" be present at each of the meetings.

McClellan and Pendleton Meeting at Jeffersontown.
The true friends and advocates of the Constitution and the laws and State rights are called upon to rally at Jeffersontown on Wednesday, November 24, 1864.
Turn out, men of Jefferson county—turn out to hear the eloquent champions upon the condition of the country. The Hon. James Guilford, T. E. Bramlette, R. T. Jacob, Robt. Mallor, Wm. F. Bullock, David McWhorter, S. E.
DeHaven, Nat. Wolfe, Hamilton Pope and General Boyle have been invited, and several of them will be present to address the meeting.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Nov. 1.— James Monroe (f. m. c.), assaulting a white man name unknown; fined $5.
James Bates, drunk and disorderly; disorderly conduct; fined $5.
Elihu Burns, drunk and disorderly; ball in $100 for two months' good behavior.
Lizzie French, drunk and disorderly; $100 for two months.
Joseph App, drunk and disorderly; fined $10.
Henry Groumley, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.
Thomas Murry, drunk and disorderly and disorderly conduct; $100 for two months.
Sarah Nolan, drunk and disorderly and disorderly conduct; $100 for two months.
M. D. Knox, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.
Eugene Vincence, drunk and disorderly; discharged.
Mike Moran, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; $200 for three months.
Lizzie Scott, Mary Armstrong and Ann Bailey, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for three months.
John Corney, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.
Mary McNulty, Sarah King, Ann McDermott and Willie Nally, selling liquor to soldiers; ball in $100 to answer.
Adam Stephen, stealing $100 in money and $500 worth of dry goods from Mr. Higbee; held to bail in $500 to answer.

Charles Sparr, suspected felon; discharged.
FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The organization of the Louisville Steam Fire Department is now as complete as in the United States, and as ably and efficiently conducted under the guidance of the chief, Capt. A. Y. Johnson, who was the first man to risk this city (ahead of all others) of the hand engines, which was done in June 1850. The number of men now amounts to fifty, besides the chief, and are all required to wear silver badges, whether at a fire or not. The following is the chief's report of fires, &c., for the month of October: Fires..... 3
Alarm..... 3
Loss..... 0
Insurance..... 0
This may look like a small item, but it is very large one when we consider how our city once suffered by large fires and heavy losses.

THE EYE AND EAR.—Those who are afflicted in either of these delicate organs will do well to avail themselves of the opportunity of consulting Dr. Gardner, the skillful oculist and aurist, of New York, who can be consulted daily at the Louisville Hotel.
The doctor brings testimonials of skill and ability in his profession of the highest character from medical men, and also from a number of patients, who unite in bearing unqualified testimony to his favor.

BARRACKS No. 1.—Yesterday was rather a busy day. One thousand one hundred and thirty convalescents and recruits were sent to Lexington, fifteen to Lebanon, thirty-five to Nashville, and two to Madison. Two hundred and ten convalescents and recruits arrived from Davenport, and ninety-five from various places.
The body of Brigadier General T. E. G.
Ransom is now at the Louisville Hotel. It lies in state, with a guard of honor on duty.
At half past 12 o'clock to-day the remains will be escorted to the Jeffersonville depot, to be taken to Chicago for interment.

Last night was "All Hallow E'en." In the merry days of our youth, which with us have long since passed away, the "Hallow E'en" was looked for with longing expectation. It was the time for fun among the boys and girls.

The new song, "McClellan is the Man," is going off like "hot cakes." It is the most stirring rallying song ever published.
Everybody should have a copy.

LUCY.—We understand a young lady of this city has been pronounced insane by a jury, and that she will be sent to the asylum at Lexington in a day or two.

A lady's portrait-monsie was found on Green street yesterday. It contained a small sum of money. It is at the desk in this office.

Scott Gore, the great newspaper dealer, has our thanks for St. Louis and other papers in advance of the mail.

Thompson furnished us with Cincinnati papers yesterday.

TOBACCO.—Our tobacco year ended day before yesterday. By reference to our tables we find that the sales at the different warehouses add up—Pickett..... 24,000 bbls.
North street..... 12,000 Boone..... 14,000
Louisville..... 12,000
Total..... 62,000
From this it will be seen that our tobacco trade has in the last year taken such a huge stride as to place it in advance of all others.
Prominent in the advance will be found Messrs. Spratt & Co., of the Pickett, whose sales this year have run up to the very extraordinary number of 24,000 hogsheads. It was bought by their friends some few months past that their sales would reach 25,000 hogsheads, and but for the sudden decline of prices in the last few weeks, which materially curtailed sales, they would have sold nearly if not quite 26,000 hogsheads. As it is, however, they have sold this year more tobacco than was ever sold before by any other firm in the world, and we take pleasure in thus putting on record such pleasant facts.

RUMORS.—Rumors were rife yesterday to the effect that General Forrest, with a very large rebel force, crossed the Cumberland river yesterday and was coming to Kentucky. We also heard that Hood was menacing the railroad south of Nashville, and that a lively time was anticipated between him and our troops ere many days. There is certainly some unusual talk going on in that direction, but, as we can trust none of these rumors to be reliable source, we refrain from using any further remarks. The Nashville papers of yesterday do not contain any exciting news, and perhaps the dispatches may throw some light upon the state of affairs now existing south of that city, if there is any news of an exciting character.

SELLING LIQUOR TO SOLDIERS.—A number of women have for some time been in the habit of selling liquor to the soldiers at the barracks and different camps near the city.
Yesterday morning four of these women were presented before the Police Court, having been arrested by the military and turned over to the civil authorities. Their names were Sarah King, Ann McDermott, Mary McNulty and Willie Nally, all of whom were held over to answer the charge. There is a State statute against selling liquor to soldiers within five miles of a camp, and hereafter any person found violating this order will be turned over to the civil authorities for trial.

HOSPITAL REPORT.—Report of poor sick and pay patients admitted and prescribed for in Louisville Marine Hospital during the month of October, 1864:
Remaining September 30th..... 70 Admitted during October..... 88
Total..... 158
Of these were discharged..... 84
Died..... 8-92
Remaining October 31st..... 66 Number of children born..... 2 Dispensary patients prescribed for..... 25
Total..... 91
Louisville, October 31st, 1864.

H. S. JULIAN & CO., BANKERS.—This firm is composed of experienced bankers—men who have spent the greater portion of their lives in connection with the banks of the city and the State. They therefore enjoy large experience, and bring to their business the best skill, beside an abundant capital. Those who have transactions to make in their line, or who need bankers, will find them strictly honorable and prepared. Their office is No. 53 Hamilton building, corner of Sixth and Main streets.

WE learn that the ladies of Jeffersontown, Kentucky, have caused the remains of the four young men, who were shot in retaliation for the soldier who was recently murdered at that place by the guerrillas, to be taken up, placed in coffins and decently interred in the graveyard. The exercises were conducted in the most solemn and becoming manner. The ladies will long be remembered for this humane act.

THE RACES AT WOODLAWN YESTERDAY.— The match double-team race for $250 a side, between "Maul Brookes and Chuck-a-Luck" and "Gentle Annie and Jewett," did not come off, the latter team paying forfeit. In view of this the match race was gotten up between Oley and the second and third by Bob. The time made was 3:10, 3:20 and 3:30.

CITY.—Really the city presented a dull appearance yesterday, looking for all the world as if the "blues" had proved an epidemic among our citizens. There was little or no business transacted in any quarter. Very few, if any, streets were made. Military matters seemed dull. The weather was rather cool, while the sun shined us during the day. The night was cool and the city quiet.

L. D. BACKER, one of the four unfortunate men who were shot in retaliation for the Federal soldier killed by Rue Menday, was we learn, a Captain in the Confederate service.
His name was Lindsey Duke Backer, and he was a Captain in Colonel Chenoweth's regiment. He was captured near Eddyville, Kentucky, and brought to our city a prisoner but a few days before he was killed.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a horse attached to a rockway took fright and started on Sixth street at a rapid gait. A gentleman who was quietly walking along the street, thinking that some one was in the carriage, attempted to check the horse, when he was knocked down, the carriage passing over him and breaking one of his legs. We were unable to learn the gentleman's name.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—The military commission, of which Brigadier General Judah is the presiding officer, was in session yesterday.
The testimony in the case of Col. Livingston, charged with black mailing, was concluded after which the commission adjourned until Thursday morning in order to give the counsel on both sides time to prepare their arguments in the case.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.—We direct the attention of our readers and the trade generally to the card of Messrs. John Crispy & Co. in our columns to-day. This firm is established at No. 129 Fourth street, between Main and the river. They deal extensively in grain, hay, and produce generally, and transact a general business as commission merchants.

IN IRONS.—The following number of deserters were received here yesterday, all of whom were heavily ironed: Eighteen from Cincinnati and one from Jeffersonville. The following were transferred: Four in irons to Lexington, four to Nashville, one to Frankfort, one to Rock Island, and four to Cairo.

THE Democrat is served to all portions of the city by prompt and faithful carriers.
Persons can be supplied with the Democrat every day in the week at their offices or residences at twenty-five cents per week. All orders left at the clerk's desk or with the carriers will receive prompt attention.

SHOT AND KILLED.—Yesterday morning a soldier belonging to the Seventh Kentucky cavalry regiment accidentally shot and killed himself while fooling with a pistol. The accident happened near the Nashville depot.
We could not learn his name.

Monday night John Bell was arrested and lodged in the military prison. Bell had been drafted, and refusing to appear in answer to the summons of the Provost Marshal, or to furnish a substitute, he was arrested as above stated.

Mr. Geo. A. Williams, the clever clerk of the Vicksburg and New Orleans packet Big Grey Eagle, has our thanks for latest list of New Orleans papers. Long live George.

No desertion was arrested in the city yesterday. They are getting scarce in this city.

Amusements.
Wood's Theatre.—Miss Zoe drew another splendid house last night, it being her second performance of the "French Spy," which was received with the same plaudits as on its first representation. It remained for the terrific combat scene between herself and Mohammed (Mr. E.
D. Lay) to arouse her audience to an appreciation of her wonderful endurance and determination to conquer all obstacles. In this act, she moved the people at her will. While lying stretched upon the stage, apparently overcome by Mohammed, she both struck and parried some of the most effective blows we ever remember seeing. Her beholders were fairly struck spell-bound with horror when, rising from this fearful and recumbent position, she quickly felled Mohammed with her fast-drawing blow. A perfect torrent of applause burst forth, which must have been highly gratifying to the young artist.

To-night Miss Zoe will appear in three parts in the "Wizard of the East," the whole to conclude with the musical choruses of "The Loan of a Lover," in which the musical talent of the company will have an opportunity to display itself.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Camille was repeated at this establishment last evening to another fashionable audience, and Miss Heron was as eminently great as ever. To-night will be produced for the first time here a new play by Matilda Heron, entitled "The Mysteries of the Temple of Paris," with new scenery, &c. The play has been performed in New York and Boston with great success. It has been in preparation at the Louisville Theatre for some weeks, and will doubtless prove most attractive.

The Capitol Hotel, at Frankfort, has recently been purchased by J. B. Akin, Esq., late of Danville, Ky. Mr. Akin is giving the house a thorough renovation and preparing it for the reception of guests.

It seems that all of Jesse's men have not left the State, as was supposed. Thirty of them were in Napoleon, Gallatin county, on Saturday last, stealing horses and robbing stores.

A collision occurred at Bardonia junction Monday morning, by one freight train running into the hind and of another.
No one hurt.

The clever messengers of the Adams Express company have our thanks for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

Another large locomotive arrived yesterday from the East for the Nashville railroad.

Mr. Cramer, the fast mail agent, has our thanks for Nashville papers of yesterday.
